VOL. XI. RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, THURSDAY, MAY, 19 1881. NO. 42

A REMARKABLE JOURNALIST.

Engraver and Printer Who Uses Neither Hands nor Feet.

Stockton Mail.

The most remarkable newspaper man in the United States lives at Angels Camp, in Calaveras county. His name is S. S. Waterman. He is 24 years old and has been paralyzed ever since he was born. He was born in Angels and has never been away from the town but once, when he went in search of medical aid, but failed to find any. His paralysis is of the upper and lower limbs, which he cannot move. His speech is also affected and it is only with difficulty that he can talk at all. Early in life he manifested a liking for movable type, which he placed in position with his teeth. He soon began to cut type out of wood, holding the engraving tools between his teeth when he used them. He has made a good deal of block type in this way, with which he at present conducts a small job printing business. He also sets metal type with his teeth. Waterman was one of the founders of the Mountain Echo, a weekly paper now being published at Angels. He set a good deal of the type on this paper with his teeth, and having a good education, manufactured his editorials and other articles as he went along. He is now out of the newspaper business and confines himself entirely to job printing and engraving. He does all the programme and invitation work for the town, frequently engraving special designs for his jobs. His presswork, of course, he cannot do with his teeth and employs a boy to do that part of the work for him--the only part he cannot do himself.

Too Much Combat-ability ob Tempah.

"No, sonny, I nebbah had a wife—nebbah 'vested in the matry-monul lot'ry. De chances allus seemed ter me fo'ter be pow'ully 'gin drawin' a prize; if yu wuns buy a ticket in that scheem yo' am suah fo' to draw sumfin, an' a pooah hoss cats as much as a good 'un. The English Succession.

If you want to fix in your memory the order of succession of the monarchs of England since the Conquest, get the following by "heart:"

First, William the Norman, then William his son;
Henry, Stephen and Henry, then Richard and John;
Next, Henry the Third; Edwards one, two and three;
Again, after Richard, three Henry's we see.
Two Edwards, third Richard, if rightly I guess,
Two Henry's, sixth Edward, Queen Mary and Bess;
Then Jamie the Scott; then Charles whom they slew;
Then followed Cromwell, another Charles, too.
Next James, called the Second, ascended the throne;
Then William and Mary together came on;
Till Anne, Georges four, and fourth William all past,
God sent them Victoria, the youngest and last.

Woman's Education in Berlin.

Berlin letter to the London Globe.

The British colony and its numerous German friends are actively engaged in furthering the praiseworthy efforts to found a home for Miss Archer's Victoria Lyceum, an institution founded by her for the higher education of women. Miss Archer, who had to contend with many difficulties, has had the satisfaction of seeing her endeavors for the welfare of her sex crowned with success. The lectures at Victoria Lyceum are each season given before ever-increasing audiences, and embrace a wide range of subjects ably treated by the most eminent professors of Berlin. Notwithstanding its prosperity the Victoria Lyceum, with which various benevolent works are connected, had had no house of its own. In order to provide for this exigency subscriptions have been opened, Wrinkled Faces.

It is a painful sight to see young ladies in their teens with wrinkled and prematurely old faces; nevertheless it is quite common, and to any one who observes the tendency of the times the reasons is very apparent. Owing to flaming advertisements and bogus certificates, in which are used the names of eminent physicians, and chemists, the unsuspecting and credulous have been induced to use some of the so-called liquid beautifiers, all of which are known be positively injurious, and if used for any length of time will destroy the complexion, so that it will be next to impossible to restore it. Mothers should be very careful to see that their daughters do not use these preparations, but ask for and obtain Slaven's Harmless Yosemite Face Powder, the only harmless beautifier. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

SHILOH'S CATARRH REMEDY. A marvelous cure for Catarrh, Diphtheria, Canker mouth, and Headache, with each bottle there is an ingenious nasal Injector for the more successful treatment of these complaints without extra charge. Women Never Think.

If the crabbed old bachelor who uttered this sentiment could but witness the intense thought, deep study and thorough investigation of women in determining the best medicines to keep their families well, and would note their sagacity and wisdom in selecting Hop Bitters as the best, and demonstrating it by keeping their families in perpetual health, at a mere nominal expense, he would be forced to acknowledge that such sentiments are baseless and false.

Hub Punch is composed of the finest liquors and most exquisite fruit juices. In Winter or Summer, with hot water or milk as toddy, or with ice, soda, etc., this is par excellence, the favorite; keep it on hand.

CONKLING CORRECTED.

Roscoe Conkling, in his letter to Governor Cornell, makes the following statement: "Mr. Fish, son of the former distinguished Secretary of State, had, in deference to an ancient practice, placed his position at the disposal of the new Administration, but was ready to remain at his post if desired to do so." The Diplomatic Bureau of the State Department gives the following as the facts in the case: Fish, on the 13th of February, 1881, wrote Secretary Evarts, saying that he must decline to remain longer at his post, and enclosed his resignation. The 7th of March Fish addressed a letter to Secretary Blaine, asking to be relieved from duty. The resignation was accepted, and a note of acknowledgement for faithful duty sent Fish by Secretary Blaine. Learning a short time afterwards that while Fish was unwilling to stay in Switzerland, he might possibly desire still to remain in the Diplomatic Service, Secretary Blaine telegraphed him April 4th asking him to go to Denmark, General Badeau having declined that mission. Fish replied by cable, declining Denmark, for the reason that he desired promotion. In reference to Cramer's appointment as Fish's successor in the Swiss mission, it is learned this was done in answer to a personal request of General Grant.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Free Lance: Mr. Conkling was playing a game with Mr. Garfield. The latter had the deal every time, and all who were in the room where the game was going on, seemed to be Mr. Garfield's friends. Whether the lookers on gave Mr. Garfield signs when to swing for Mr. Conkling's pedro is not certain, but results indicate that such was the fact, for Mr. Garfield kept swinging and catching pedro all the time, just as if he had received signals. Mr. Conkling just got mad, jumped up and left the crowd and the room, and is now daring Mr. Garfield to come out on the sidewalk where there will be a fair show, and to fight it out. Mr. Conkling thinks he can lick Mr. Garfield when they are both on the outside. Mr. Platt who went out with Mr. Conkling does not count.

Governor Foster has said to a Tribune reporter: The independent Republicans made Garfield's nomination possible. They are a large and responsible body of men, and the President, in all his conversations with Conkling, distinctly stated that he should feel obliged to recognize them in making his appointments, and he spoke particularly of Judge Robertson, for whom he had a high regard. Conkling did not accuse these men treachery, as his letter intimated. He said, however, that the President overestimated them, that they were few, and unimportant to the party. He never said that he would oppose their appointment to office. The President did not promise to consult with Conkling before making appointments.

A man who has seen Salt Lake people as they are, says: "Whole tribes of half-grown boys and girls—hoodlums, with scarcely any exception; young men, sullen and vicious-looking; young women, careworn and degraded. Every woman with a baby at her breast, and two or three hanging on her skirts; more halt, blind and lame than I ever saw in all my life."

We are in a position to state positively that Dr. Clark is not the instigator of the injunction suit.—Carson Times.

The people throughout the State seem to think that Dr. Clark has one hand in the Asylum injunction suit, if not both.—Austin Reveille.

The Boston Traveller says: "We believe we may justly say that, considering the timeliness of its articles, its high literary merit, and its artistic features, the May number of Scribner's Monthly is probably the finest of any illustrated magazine ever published."

A man with sandy hair growing gray and a florid complexion arising from good digestion, residing near Fremont, Ohio, smiles somewhat nowadays, and says, as it were to James A. Garfield: "I told you so—peace with Conk. is impossible."

The Senate yesterday afternoon confirmed Robertson as the Collector of the Port of New York. It is stated that the only negative votes on Robertson were Ingalls, Farley, Jones and Don Cameron.

The Belmont Courier complains of the salary bill, and hopes Nye county may be relieved from it. That county owes its officers $3,645 06, and has only $269 20 to pay it with.

The Gold Hill News and Reese River Reveille have signified their entire accord with the decision of the Supreme Court on the Lottery question.

The New York Tribune thinks that, with a bomb under it and a trip-hammer suspended over it, the future of Bossism looks just a trifle precarious.

A New Yorker thinks Conkling, in appealing to the Legislature, asks judgment of his sisters and his cousins and his aunts.

The Virginia Chronicle thinks the voice is the voice of Garfield, but the hand is the hand of Blaine.

The Times-Review is evidently prospering and we are glad of it. Virtue is its own reward.

What kind of a Czar would Conkling make?

Some Notes on Conkling.

NEW YORK, May 18.

The Tribune thus sums up its specials: The feeling at Washington is generally one of disappointment that Conkling has made out so poor a case for himself and his "assistant." Some of the assertions in his letter of resignation, it is claimed, must have been known to him to be untrue, while the pretended devotion to civil service reform excites smiles.

The editor of the Providence Press telegraphs his paper that it is part of Conkling's scheme to be re-elected for Platt's term.

Information from Albany is to the effect that Conkling may in turn suffer a startling surprise in failing to secure re-election.

Sierra Valley Locals.

Prospects are good for both hay and grain, and the ranchers feel good after three years of grassoppers. The hoppers are now very numerous on a few ranches but the crickets are said to be eating them very fast.

A large area of grain surrounds Loyallton.

The Sierra cattle men are going to Sacramento valley for beef, but there will soon be plenty at home, as the feed is abundant.

The May flies arrived this year in April; last year, not till June.

The Valley had .60 of an inch rainfall on the 8th.

The sanitary condition of the Valley is excellent. A few measles and minor accidents.

The small-pox scare reached Loyalton but was based only upon rumors and fears of the Reno Indians.

Nautical.

Troy Press.

"Is that a yacht?" we inquired of a long, gaunt codder who was lounging about the wharf, and we pointed to a small steam vessel coming in. "No," was the reply. "Is that a yacht?" we inquired again, pointing to another sort of craft that we thought might be a yacht. "No, that ain't no yacht, nuther," was the answer. "Well, what is a yacht?" was our next inquiry. "Wot's a yot?" said the fisherman. "Well, you gets any sort of a craft you d—n please, and fill her up with liquor and see-gars, and git yer frens on board and have a h—l of a time—and that's a yot!" We thanked him with fervor, for we had long been trying to find out what a yacht really was.

COTTONWOOD CANYON.

It Contains Valuable Mines—An Account of the Work Already Done in the District.

E. B. Giles, of Buffalo Salt Works, informs the GAZETTE concerning a recent visit which he made to Cottonwood District.

The mines are situated in Cottonwood canyon 11 miles east of Buffalo Salt Works, and the croppings are sufficiently well defined and extensive to satisfy the oldest practical miner. The is the first location reached and is owned by B. F. Murphy and J. A. Gleason. Very little has been done besides prospecting on this property, but work will be commenced this week. It crops for about 1200 feet and the ledge varies from three to five feet. The second claim in the canyon is, owned by Chas. Young and B. F Murphy. The Blackbird' crops for about 1,000 feet. The ledge is six feet between casings with a plumbago gouge between wall and ledge, four inches on foot wall and eight inches on hanging wall, the ledge pitching to the southeast. It assays from 80c to $94, six feet under ground. This claim is considered by some the most promising mine in the camp. The next claim to mention is the although it is not very near to the Blackbird. This is owned by Harrison, Doyle and Taylor, all of Honey Lake, and are men of means, and they are going ahead as rapidly as possible. They will strike the ledge abot 40 feet further in, about 80 or 90 feet under ground. This ledge crops out for almost a mile and a half. It is 40 inches wide with a good gouge on each side, and assays from $10 to $408 per ton, $11 in gold, with a pitch southeast.

NEW YORK

BLACKBIRD

GRAY EAGLE,

THE BLACKBURN

lies 500 feet south of, and runs parallel with, the Gray Eagle. Crowly, Kellogg, Parish and Harris are the owners. It crops out for about three-quarters of a mile and assays as high as $526. The ledge is 35 or 36 inches wide, showing a good Plumbago gouge between the ledge, and each wall from one and a half to two inches wide. The owners are determined men and are pushing ahead vigorously lies about one-half mile east of the Blackburn. The owners are Miller, Lewis and Hurd. It crops for about 800 feet, pitches southeast with a ledge of 22 inches, assaying from $80 to $400. Holes have only been sunk about 8 feet in two different places but they show the same quality of ore in both places. This is supposed to have been sold lately for $9,500 to a company who have means and inclination to go ahead. The same company have bought the next claim north, which has been prospected very little, It assays from $50 to $85. This looks to be a large true fissure vein. The price paid is $2,500.

HORNET

THE EUREKA

mine belongs to Taylor Waldron and Hamlin. It is the southwest extention on the Blackburn ledge. It crops for about 500 feet. The ledge is about 3½ feet wide, pitches southeast and assays from $12 to $300. They are steadily at work on this claim.

BLACK BESS

is the first northeast extension of the Blackburn ledge, owned by Murphy, Gleason, Lemons and Ware. Active operations are just started on this claim with good prospects. A good road is now finished from Buffalo to the camp, and the first freight team passed over it last week. B. F. Murphy has put up a good house and will move over his family in a short time. Mr. L. Harris has moved his family in and his wife has the honor of being the first woman to settle in the camp. There is plenty of cedar wood to work on for some years, plenty of good water in Cottonwood Canyon, more than will be called in use by all the mills for years. The prospectors and miners in the new district are much offended at reports that they have taken up everything. Mr. Giles assures the GAZETTE that there is plenty of room and a welcome for new-comers. He has not attempted to color the above news items and will vouch for their correctness. The owners have not sought publicity in any way but are determined to stay with the camp and will welcome anybody who will assist in the work of development. The Laniger Brothers are also assisting materially in building up the new district. The mines can be reached by the Surprise Valley stage, and conveyance from Buffalo. The new district certainly has the best of prospects.

M. D. vs. M. C.

LOYALTON, Cal., May 17, 1881.

Editor Reno Gazette:—As this is the first time that I have written you since that dirty, lying, scurrilous article from "Many Citizens," filled brimfull of maliciousness, and intended as a personal attack upon me, I crave permission to say only a word or two in self-defense. The whole affair grew out of the M. E. Church people of Loyalton trying to appropriate a small piece of property (still, as large as their souls, judging from a liberal standpoint) for the M. E. Conference, which they—the Church officials—dare not swear they owned one cent in, either directly or indirectly, as a Church body. The result was that they had to pay for the property, but the chagrin of being worsted in the bold and dastardly attempt to acquire that which they well knew they were not in any sense entitled to is worse than the cost, and they are stinging under injured consciences as well as injured purses. Yours respectfully,

M. D.

Tourists.

The party which leaves for Yosemite to-morrow, will travel horseback via the Big Tree route.

W. H. Getchell and party left today for Washington Territory. The party had 47 horses, 9 wagons and 2 buggies. Mr. Getchell took his mother and father, and mother and father-in-law along. His parents are both going on the age of 82. Rather aged to start for an unexplored region, but they are in good hands. Getchell promised to embark with the American flag flying.

Loyalton-Sardine Road.

The Loyalton and Sardine, or Truckee, toll road has changed hands, and under the new management has been put in excellent condition. Thomas West is President and M. Levy Secretary. The new owners will give an excursion and picnic over the road to Sardine valley on Wednesday, May 25th, and a good time is expected. Many good citizens of Sierra valley are interested in the road.

CAIN IN CARSON.

The "Gazette" Declines to "Intahview" him and he Discovers a Carson Oyster.

"Editah, is you heah?" said Professor Cain, the blind scientific wonder, as he walked into the GAZETTE sanctum. "Well, genelum, I's de boss, no use talkin'; I'se discubbered de garden ob Eden an' proobed dat Adam was a black man."

"Do you want to advertize?" said the bland business manager.

"No sah, but I want you to intahview me, sah."

"Well, I'm busy just now—there's a delinquent subscriber in town."

"Now, look heah, you don't want to play wid me. Haint you got any smart men heah? I'se jist cum from Truckee, and dat's de lowest down camp for intellect an' science I ebber saw."

"What do you know!" said the scientific editor.

"I know dat Darwin, Tyndall an' Huxley is all suckin' babes long side o' me. Water comes from smoke, zoology was befoh de creation, an' I'm de boss in zoology, geology, phrenology an' theology."

"You seem to be a good single handed talker."

"You got any skeptics in dis office?" asked the giddy professor.

"Just out, Mr. Cain. Elegant job work, new type, latest patterns, low rates. Daily and Weekly GAZETTE—anything in that line."

"Now look heah, you's not gwine to play me fur an amygdaloidal structure. You's a fossil, dat's what you is. 'You's disappreciative. I's lookin' for somebody I kin convince."

"Well go and see the Times man in Carson. If you're looking for an intellectual mollusk, he's your oyster."

"'Clare to my goodness, I'll find him an' he wont last ten minutes."

He found him and the Times man gave him a half column ad. on account of his scientific attainments.

The Carnival.

As predicted in the GAZETTE, the pavilion was crowded last night. The maskers were out in respectable number, and the spectators were so numerous as to materially encroach upon the skating room. The music by the Montgomery Guard band was the best heard in Reno for a long time. The skating for prizes showed that the young folks have been devoting considerable leisure time to the rink. Master Murray took the gentleman's prize, and Miss Jessie Finlayson was awarded the lady's pair of skates. Miss Emma Jones competed with the winner, and both the young ladies fairly earned the prize by their grace and ease of carriage. Manager Tucker is to be congratulated on the success of Reno's first skating carnival. Skating continued until 12 M., when dancing ensued until morning.

Queen's Drug Store.

M. & L. Florida water, 25 cents per bottle; Casimere Bouquet soap, 25 cents per cake; other fine toilet soaps, from 75 cents per dozen to $1 per cake; best makes English and American hair brushes, from 25 cents all the way up to $5 apiece; and a full line of perfumes, toilet sets, cut glass bottles, etched and Iridescent glassware, picture moulding, artist's materials, pure wines, brandies and whiskey for medical purposes, trusses and shoulder braces, drugs and medicines of known purity and strength, etc., at bottom prices at Queens Drug Store. *

After Three Years.

Nelson Light, the legless woodchopper, who was sent to Stockton from Reno some three years ago, has been released and returned to Reno. At the time of his commitment he had about $1,500 which he had earned by splitting wood. Light thinks he has that money coming to him, but it has been paid out for his care at the asylum. He seems to be perfectly sane and remembers most everybody. It is too bad that his earnings have been swept away by what may have been an unnecessary incarceration.

District Court.

The Lake property case is still on trial in the District Court. The testimony is to the effect that his property is worth somewhere about $300,000.

Samuel Brown has brought suit in the District Court against Newt Evans for $20,000, for injuries sustained.

The District Court is still occupied by the case of Lake vs Lake. Court adjourned to-day until Tuesday next.

Judge King will render his decision in the Asylum injunction matter in Carson on Saturday.

PERSOANL.

Judge Bowman of Verdi, is in town.

B. F. Sheldon, of Janesville, is in Reno.

Frank Osbiston has gone to New York.

W. H. Doane and family returned to Carson to-day.

F. B. Lyle, agent Standard oil Co., is in town.

J. H. Kaneen of Virginia was down last night.

Mrs. J. F. Badenoch is teaching private school in Loyalton.

Gus Nye and Alice Nye, of Virginia, were at the carnival last night.

Bob Keating has passed through Reno on his way to Downieville.

John Bowman and family were surprised last night by their friends.

Miss Ella M. Knowlton of Reno, is in Sierra Valley teaching music.

La Roche of Reno, carried off the palm among the gentlemen last night.

Messrs Bender, Boynton, Rankin and Fassett will start for Yosemite tomorrow.

Miss Nellie Clark of Carson, was thought to be the best lady skater at the carnival.

A. A. Smith, who had his collar bone broken by a fall, as mentioned in the GAZETTE, is out again. Hard man to throw down.

Prof. W. F. Stewart will, during the summer, visit Colorado and New Mexico in the interest of a number of mining men in the East.

N. P. Langford, St. Paul, Minnesota, special agent of the Treasury department, is overhauling the affairs of the First National Bank.

Nasby displays a very fine picture of several ladies in front of his store. They are taking their otium cum dignitate, also their Caporal cigarettes.

Citizens' Meeting.

A meeting of citizens interested in the State Fair proposition has been called for to-night at Reform Club Hall. Every tax-payer and business man is directly interested in having a successful fair held and they should all turn out and help. Any lack of interest will materially discourage the Trustees and render work entirely useless. They are willing to do all that can be done if the citizens will help. Now is the time to discuss and understand the proposition. Go to the meeting to-night.

Bogus Liquorice.

Charley Stoddard, messenger for W. F. & Co., brings in a specimen of what is known to the discoverers as "black wax." There is a large deposit of this material near Ogden. It looks like liquorice and is used for the manufacture of statuettes and toys. An English company is working the property at present, and the amount is said to be unlimited. If they would do it up similar to liquorice sticks a thriving trade might result through the credulity of small boys.

Pyramid Notes.

Four men are still at work in the J & K tunnel. It is proposed to complete the work with a Burleigh drill.

R. A. Branton has 1,400 head of sheep in corrals at Pyramid ready for shearing.

The Monroe Hotel is full of guests.

There are about fifty men in the camp.

Hopper Trap.

On Avancino's ranch, Ede says there is a grasshopper trap. The trap is nothing more than a sack placed in the ditch, with a screen bottom. The sack is kept open by a hoop, and the water in the ditch is all directed through the trap by dams. Ede says the hoppers were going into the sack at the rate of 2,000 pounds per day.

Bidwell News.

Joe Riley, who recently left Reno for the northern country, is in Surprise. His horse was taken sick at Salt Marsh and will probably die.

There is considerable excitement over a reported discovery of gold-bearing rock within one mile of Bidwell.

Summer Luxury.

R. E. Queen has again prepared a soothing fountain for the thristy. He will sell tickets at $1 per dozen. This is a practical encouragement for temperance, and Queen will make soda water popular at any cost.

Strange Story.

It is asserted that the finest costumes worn at the carnival last night were only a small indication of the real beauty and excellence of Barnett's stock, corner Commercial row and Virginia street. *

Ex-Senator Thurman is coming to the front as the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Minnesota has a new law permitting teachers in the public schools to give daily instruction in social science, good morals and patriotism. Thirty topics are specified, such as health, honesty, industry and chastity, but none of them are distinctly religious.

The Governor of Ohio does not have the veto power, but the Republican newspapers in that State think it should be given him.—Exchange. Hope not. It is pleasant to think that there is something an Ohio man can't have.

The Cincinnatti Gazette expects great things from Mr. Means, the new Mayor of that city. He has shut up the doors of the Sunday theatres, and now there is talk of closing the liquor saloons. The regular gambling dens are also tabooed by the police, and the Gazette suggests that active operations be next directed to the policy shops.

This is what President Garfield wrote in his letter of acceptance: "The Executive should, therefore, seek and receive the information and assistance of those whose knowledge of the communities in which the duties are to be performed best qualifies them to aid in making the wisest choice." Just now the Conkling gang is throwit in his face.

This man is a Philadelphian. What a large hat he wears! The large hat is a sign of brotherly love. The Philadelphian is happy. See what a broad smile expands his features. Why does the Philadelphian thus relax his countenance? It is because New York can't have any world's fair. There are many Philadelphians in this world.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

There is a good deal of worry because Garfield has precipitated "a crisis in the party." Why, the crisis in the party isn't half big enough. If Garfield had made the fight in behalf of some intelligible principle, and not as between Blaine men and Conkling men, there would have been a growing and winning cause. A party which recognizes no principle but spoil needs a crisis, and a bigger one than this.—Springfield Republican.

An immense suggestion: A Boston young lady of culchaw, who is much annoyed by the staring of rude young men in the horsecars, and who is, moreover, beyond her years a shrewd judge of human nature, has discovered a simple remedy against the discomfort. She reports that by gazing at the shoes of such silent admirers with a look composed of equal parts of amusement and deprecation, the most annoying bore is reduced to a contemplation of the same articles, and in wondering what is the matter with them is kept diligently employed for an indefinite period.—Troy (N. Y.) Times.

A sympathetic small boy: Papa: "That picture shows the story of Prometheus and the vulture that fed on his liver. Every day the vulture devoured it and every night it grew for him to eat it again." Sympathetic child: "Poor, dear old vulture! How sick he must have been on liver every day!"—Rome (N. Y.) Sentinel.

Patient—"Then, according to you, doctor, in order to live at all, I must give up all that makes life worth living for?" Doctor—"I'm afraid so—at least for a few years." Patient—"Perhaps you'd recommend me to marry?" Doctor (a confirmed bachelor)—"Oh, no! Come my dear fellow, it's not quite so bad as that, you know."

A Nihilistic Society.

The secret society of the Tobaykoftzy, of which Sophia Perovskaya is stated to have been a leading member, was founded by the Nihilist Prince Krapotkin who defined its leading principles as "the worthlessness of all existing forms of State life." The only means of reform in Russia is, according to the programme of this society, a socialistic revolution. Prince Krapotkin, was as a rule, opposed to entering into any relations with the Russian refugees abroad. But he fully sympathizes with Bukunin and his followers, who proclaimed it to be their first object to destroy Governments, State forms, and authority generally.
